

Eta Mu Newsletter

Chi State

Area XVII

March 2016

Volume XLVIII, No. 7

UPCOMING EVENTS

Apr. 19 Learning
Quest

Apr. 29-May 1
Chi State
Convention

May 14 Joint Installation of Officers

Birthdays

March 14
Lynn Lysko

March 17
Anice Beary

March 23
Ardis Bashaw

March 26
Valerie Spencer

March 28
Betty Harrell

Mission Statement

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International promotes professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education.

Potato Fest

When: Tuesday, March 8 at 5:30 P.M.

Where: Standiford Place,
3420 Shawnee Drive, Modesto

Contact Person: Nina Rossiter 521-7000

If it's March, it must be Potato Fest time once again! Please join your Eta Mu sisters in piling on the fixings atop steaming baked potatoes just as the leprechauns do it in the old country. May all your baked potatoes be "práta plúrach*!"

There will be a short business meeting at 5:30 followed by dinner. Hostesses for this event will be Nina Rossiter, Betty Harrell, Valerie Spencer, Andrea Bynum, Roberta Bica, and Janice Chan.

*floury potatoes

Reminder:

Our Eta Mu sister Susan Neufeld will be honored by the Literacy Network of Stanislaus County. She will receive the Jean and Clyde Dunlap Award for outstanding contributions to the cause of literacy. The Literacy Network Luncheon is Friday, March 4, 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at the Family Life Pavilion of CrossPoint Church (formerly First Baptist Church), 1301 12th Street, Modesto. Cost for the luncheon and materials is $25. To register, please email the Stanislaus Partners in Education secretary, Debbie Ruiz, at spie@thevision.net or call her at 238-1766.

LIFE Fundraiser

Please support the LIFE Foundation's Fundraiser by buying books at Barnes and Noble from Sunday, March 6, 2016 to Friday, March 26, 2016. Barnes and Noble will donate a portion of the cost of each book to the LIFE Foundation. Your purchase will support the LIFE Foundation Grants.

Please use the ID code #11741097 in the store or online.

Happy reading. Kathleen

Chi State Convention

Registration for the Chi State Convention, Double Tree By Hilton, Fresno, is due by Sunday, April 10, 2016. This year registration is to be completed online and the registration form and check to be mailed. Please contact Kathleen Heinzinger if you need help with the registration. Her number is 572-3420. To date Pat, Trudi and Kathleen will be attending. With the convention so close to Modesto, it is a wonderful opportunity to meet DKG sisters from throughout California, participate in wonderful workshops and hear excellent speakers.