Reading Across Mary Lou Dieterich School

Mary Lou Dietrich, Pat Elston, Judy Trask, Linda Chrabas, Debbie Mar and Kathleen Heinzinger enjoyed celebrating Dr. Seuss Day at Mary Lou Dieterich School. They read in twenty-seven classrooms and donated twenty-one books. Trudi Sigmon and Heather Coons were unable to read, however, Trudi donated thirteen books and Heather donated two books. The students and staff enjoyed listening to a variety of wonderful stories.

Member News

Debbie Mar just returned from a two week IOT1 (Instructor of Teachers) training for CEF (Children's Evangelism Fellowship) at Oregon City, OR. This certification will allow her to equip more CEF teachers to teach Good News Clubs in the public schools. Debbie says, "Oh, how nice it is to be retired!"

50th Anniversary Update

By now, everyone should have received her invitation for our 50th Anniversary Reception. The committee hopes you are as excited as we are! Please RSVP as soon as possible by calling (209-484-3416) or emailing (beardiva@aol.com) Janice Freeman. The absolute deadline is April 3rd.

We would like to collect the reservation money prior to the event. Checks should be made out to ETA MU-DKG. You may mail them to Janice or bring them to the Potato Fest. The cost is $35 per person or $50 per couple, if you are bringing a guest.

Convention

The annual California State DKG convention will be held May 4 - 6 in Irvine at the Irvine Marriott. Steer Toward the Future is this year's theme.
